NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
Required Notice Under Federal HIPAA Law

I. THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

II. I HAVE A LEGAL DUTY TO SAFEGUARD YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI)

I am legally required to protect the privacy of your PHI, which includes information that can be used to identify you that I've created or received about your past, present, or future health or condition, the provision of health care to you., or the payment of this health care. I must provide you with this Notice about my privacy practices, and such Notice must explain how, when, and why I will "use" and "disclose" your PHI. A "use" of PHI occurs when I share, examine, utilize, apply, or analyze such information within my practice; PHI is "disclosed" when it is released, transferred, has been given to, or is otherwise divulged to a third party outside of my practice. With some exceptions, I may not use or disclose any more of your PHI than is necessary to accomplish the purpose for which the use or disclosure is made. And, I am legally required to follow the privacy practices described in this Notice.

However, I reserve the right to change the terms of this Notice and my privacy policies at any time. Any changes will apply to PHI on file with me already. Before I make any important changes to my policies, I will promptly change this Notice and post a new copy of it in my office and on my website. You can also request a copy of this Notice from me.

III. HOW I MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PHI.

I will use and disclose your PHI for many different reasons. For some of these uses or disclosures, I will need your prior authorization; for others, however, I do not. Listed below are the different categories of my uses and disclosures along with some examples in each category.

A. Uses and Disclosures Relating to Treatment, Payment, or Health Care Operations Do Not Require Your Prior Written Consent. I can use and disclose your PHI without your consent for the following reasons.

1. For treatment. I can disclose your PHI to physicians, psychiatrists, psychologists, and to other licensed health care providers who provide you with health care services or are involved in your care. For example, if you are being treated by a psychiatrist, I can disclose your PHI to your psychiatrist in order to coordinate your care.
2. To obtain payment for treatment. I can use and disclose your PHI to bill and collect payment. For example, I might send your PHI to your insurance company or health plan to get paid for the health care services that I have provided to you. I may also provide your PHI to my business associates, such as billing companies, claims processing companies, and others that process my health care claims.
3. For health care operations. I can disclose your PHI to operate my practice. For example, I may provide your PHI to my accountant, attorney, consultants, or others to further my health care operations.
4. Other disclosures. I may also disclose your PHI to others without your consent in certain situations. For example, your consent isn't required if you need emergency treatment, as long as I try to get your consent after treatment is rendered, or if I try to get your consent but you are unable to communicate with me (for example, if you are unconscious or in severe pain) and I think that you would consent to such treatment if you were able to do so.

B. Certain Uses and Disclosures Do Not Require Your Consent. I can use and disclose your PHI without your consent or authorization for the following reasons.

1. When disclosure is required by federal, state or local laws; judicial or administrative proceeding; or; law enforcement. For example, I may make a disclosure to applicable officials when a law requires me to report information to governmental agencies and law enforcement personnel about victims of abuse or neglect, or when ordered in a judicial or administrative proceeding. For example, if you are involved in a lawsuit or a claim for worker's compensation benefits, I may have to use or disclose your PHI in response to a court or administrative order.

2. For public health activities. For example, I may have to report information about you to the county coroner
3. For health oversight activities. For example, I may have to report information to assist the government when it conducts an investigation or inspection of a health care provider or organization
4. To avoid harm. In order to avoid a serious threat to the health or safety of a person or the public, I may provide PHI to law enforcement personnel or persons able to prevent or lessen such harm.
5. For specific government functions. I may disclose PHI of military personnel and veterans in certain situations. And I may disclose PHI for national security purposes, such as protecting the President of the United States or conducting intelligence operations.
6. For worker's compensation purposes. I may provide PHI in order to comply with worker's compensation laws.
7. Appointment reminders and health related benefits or services. I may use PHI to provide appointment reminders or give you information about treatment alternatives, or other health care services or benefits I offer.

C. Certain Uses and Disclosures require You to Have the Opportunity to Object

1. Disclosures to family, friends, or others. I may provide your PHI to a family member, friend, or other person that you indicate is involved in your care or the payment for your healthcare, unless you object in whole or in part. The opportunity to consent may be obtained retroactively in emergency situations.

D. Other Uses and Disclosures Require Your Prior Written Authorization.

In any other situation not described in sections III A, B, and C above, I will ask for your written authorization before using or disclosing any of your PHI. If you choose to sign an authorization to disclose your PHI, you can later revoke such authorization in writing to stop any future uses and disclosures (to the extent that I haven't taken any action in reliance on such authorization) of your PHI to me.

IV. WHAT RIGHTS YOU HAVE REGARDING YOUR PHI.

You have the following rights with respect to your PHI:

- A. The Right to Request Limits on Uses and Disclosures of Your PHI. You have the right to ask that I limit how I use and disclose your PHI. I will consider your request, but I am not legally required to accept it. If I accept your request, I will put any limits in writing and abide by them except in emergency situations. You may not limit the uses and disclosures that I am legally required or allowed to make.
- B. The Right to Choose How I Send PHI to You. You have the right to ask that I send information to you to an alternate address (for example, sending information to your work address rather than your home address) or by alternate means (for example, email instead of regular mail). I must agree to request so long as I can easily provide the PHI to you in the format you requested.
- C. The Right to See and Get Copies of your PHI. In most cases, you have the right to look at or get copies of your PHI that I have, but you must make the request in writing. If I don't have your PHI but I know who does, I will tell you how to get it. I will respond to you within 30 days of receiving your request. In certain situations, I may deny your request. If I do, I will tell you in writing, my reasons for the denial and explain your rights to have my denial revised. If you request copies of your PHI, I will charge you not more than $.25 for each page. Instead of providing the PHI, I may provide you with a summary or explanation of the PHI as you agree to that and to the cost in advance.
- D. The Right to Get a List of Disclosures I have Made. You have a right to get a list of instances in which I have disclosed your PHI. The list will not include uses or disclosures that you have already consented to, such as those made for treatment, payment, or health care operations, directly to you or to your family. The list won't include uses and disclosures made for national security purposes, to corrections, or law enforcements, or disclosures made before April 15, 2003. I will respond within 60 days of receiving your request. The list I will give you will include disclosures made in the last six years unless you request a shorter time. The list will include the date of the disclosure, to whom the PHI was disclosed, a description of the information disclosed, and the reason for disclosure. I will provide the list to you at no charge, but if you make more than one request in the same year, I will charge you a reasonable cost based fee for each additional request.
- E. The Right to Correct or Update your PHI. If you believe that there is a mistake in your PHI or that a piece of important information is missing, you have the right to request that I correct the existing information or add the missing information. You must provide the request and reason for request in writing. I will respond within 60 days of receiving your request to correct or update your PHI. I may deny your request in writing if the PHI is (i) correct and complete, (ii) not created by me (iii) not allowed to be disclosed, or (iv) not part of my records. My written denial will state the reasons for the denial and explain your right to file a written statement of disagreement with the denial. If you don't file one, you have the right to request that your request and my denial be attached to all future disclosures of your PHI. If I approve your request I will make the changes to your PHI, tell you that I have done it, and tell others that need to know about the changes to your PHI.

- F. The Right to Get this Notice by Email. You have the right to get a copy of this notice via e-mail. Even if you have agreed to receive a notice via e-mail you also have the right to request a paper copy of it.
